Stewart Honored with Eagle Award and Elected as Third Vice President, Florida Home Builders Association

For Immediate Release:

The Florida Home Builders Association announced Shelley Stewart, of Southern Title in Daytona Beach, as a 2016 Eagle Award recipient. This coveted award, while being a presidential appointment, embodies the value and core mission of FHBA – advocating on behalf of members to improve the business environment of the building industry in Florida.

“Eagle Award recipients play key roles in the building industry,” said Ray Puzzitiello, 2016 FHBA President. “Building in Florida is better as a direct result of Shelley’s dedication and tenacity.”

Stewart also was elected as FHBA’s Third Vice President. This position is well earned from her years in leadership at both the Volusia Building Industry Association and the FHBA.

“Shelley is active in the Governmental Affairs agenda ensuring that homeownership remains a viable dream for Floridians,” said Rusty Payton, FHBA CEO/Chief Lobbyist. “She is also passionate about membership in FHBA and growing our membership. We are confident in her leadership of FHBA as its Third Vice President.”

The recognition and installation for Stewart was held on Saturday, Nov. 5, 2016, during the FHBA Fall Leadership Conference at the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort and Spa in Miramar Beach, Florida.

Established in 1949, the Florida Home Builders Association is affiliated with the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) and Florida's local/regional homebuilder associations. FHBA, along with its affiliates, work to create the best possible economic and regulatory environment for members to succeed.
